Eleven Eleven : The Two Minutes When the English-Speaking World Stops

On Wednesday, November 11, at eleven o'clock in the morning, something quiet happens across the English-speaking world. In London, Ottawa, Canberra and Washington, people stop what they are doing, and for two minutes they stand still and say nothing. It is the two-minute silence — for the soldiers who died in war, and for all who served.

WHAT THIS MEANS

At eleven in the morning on Wednesday, November 11, people across the English-speaking world stop for two minutes of silence, for the soldiers who died in war and for all who served. London, Ottawa, Canberra and Washington all stop at the same hour.

Le Sénat débat, la France se souvient, Dieppe fait la fête

Lundi 9 novembre, le Sénat ouvre la discussion sur le budget de la Sécurité sociale pour 2027. Le texte arrive dans la version du gouvernement : le 23 octobre, les députés avaient rejeté la partie « recettes » par 115 voix contre 1, et la partie « dépenses » n'avait pas été examinée. Mercredi 11 novembre, la France s'arrête : c'est le jour de l'Armistice, jour férié.

San Martino porta il vino nuovo: l'Italia assaggia l'autunno

Mercoledì 11 novembre è San Martino: secondo il proverbio, «a San Martino ogni mosto diventa vino». Si aprono le cantine, si assaggia il vino nuovo e si mangiano le castagne: è l'estate di San Martino, tre giorni di sole dopo il primo freddo. La leggenda racconta che Martino, soldato romano, divise il suo mantello con un mendicante infreddolito — e il sole tornò a splendere: un'estate breve, «tre giorni e un pochino», nel cuore di novembre.

WHAT THIS MEANS

Wednesday, November 11, is St Martin's Day: the cellars open, the new wine is tasted and chestnuts are eaten, in St Martin's summer — three days of sun after the first cold. Behind the name is the legend of Martin, the Roman soldier who divided his cloak with a freezing beggar, and the sun came back to shine.

Dois domingos, um feriado: o Brasil faz o segundo dia do Enem

Domingo, 15 de novembro, é o segundo dia do Enem 2026 — e é também o feriado da Proclamação da República. A prova e o feriado chegam no mesmo dia: de manhã, o país acorda para a história; à tarde, mais de 5 milhões de estudantes fazem Ciências da Natureza e Matemática. Os portões abrem às 12h e fecham às 13h, no horário de Brasília.

In the afternoon, more than 5 million students take Natural Sciences and Mathematics, with the gates opening at noon and closing at 1 p.m., Brasília time.
